

Monthly Pronunciation Phrases

August, 2011

Level 1

1. I have a headache.
2. Where is the post office?
3. It's very hot.

Level 2

1. I bought painting supplies.
2. Which do you prefer, tea or coffee?
3. I've been very busy.

Level 3

1. What's the expiration date?
2. Do you know when the movie starts?
3. My foot fell asleep during the tea ceremony.

Level 4

1. What's your incentive for learning English?
2. I'm a big believer in eating nutritious, balanced meals.
3. You should save some money in case of an emergency.

Level 5

1. His cheerful expression is at odds with the situation.
2. I'm not accustomed to such heat.
3. I felt flattered by my friend's compliment.

Level 6

1. I might be temporarily relocated for business.
2. The deliberate defect in the painting adds to its character.
3. For some people, admissions decisions based only on grades can be particularly disadvantageous.